DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-14, drawn to a dispenser, classified in classes 73, 137, 141, 222, 347, or 422.
 - II. Claims 15-30, drawn to a method for producing a DNA chip, classified in classes 73, 137, 141, 222, 347, 422, or 436.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions II and I are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process, such as a test strip, flow cytometer, dipstick, microfluidic device, or filter. Furthermore, the apparatus does not require or recite the particulars of the apparatus used in the apparatus, such as the base plate.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention: Invention I has three distinct species, including 1) an upwardly protruding pin provided at the pouring port of each of the micropipettes, 2) a holding section or tube provided at a circumferential edge of the pouring port of each of the micropipettes, and 3) a pitch-varying mechanism. If Applicant elects invention I, a species election involving the following groups is required:

IA. Claims 1-6

IB. Claims 7-12

IC. Claims 13 and 14

Invention II has four distinct species, including 1) a base plate on which a sample is discharged and a cartridge, which has solution storage sections with holes, positioned over the dispenser, 2) a base plate on which a sample is discharged and an upwardly protruding pin provided at the pouring port of each of the micropipettes, 3) a base plate on which a sample is discharged and a pitch-varying mechanism, and 4) a base plate on which a sample is discharged and a holding section or tube provided at a circumferential edge of the pouring port of each of the micropipettes. If Applicant elects invention II, a species election involving the following groups is required:

IIA. Claims 15 and 16

IIB. Claims 17-21

IIC. Claims 22, 23, 29, and 30

IID. Claims 24-28

Applicant is required under 35-U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. A telephone call was made to Steve P. Burr on 11/6/2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
